

Brent Troxel

Brent is a financial executive with a passion for missions and has combined these areas through involvement with Business as Missions at his local Church and now with IBEC.

Expertise

Financial and Organizational leadership. Small business CFO with experience in P&L and Cash Flow Management, Human Resource Management, International Operations, Business Acquisition and Integration.

About Brent

Brent is currently a senior member of the Management Team for a privately-owned software company in Richardson, Texas. Brent provides leadership for all Financial, Accounting and Tax, Treasury, IT and HR functions for domestic and international operations. He is also the Companies Corporate Secretary responsible for managing Investor, Banking and Board relationships including bank covenant compliance and financial reporting to the Board of Directors.

Brent is active in his local Church serving in areas of missions and small group leadership.

Experience

ASSET InterTech	VP Finance & Chief Financial Officer	2014 – present
ASSET InterTech	Director Accounting, Finance & Ops	2009 – 2013
TXP Corporation	Controller	2008 – 2009
Verizon and GTE	Financial and Management Positions	1984 – 2007

Education and Certifications

University of Dallas	MBA
Indiana University Kelley School of Business	BS, Accounting
Certified Public Accountant	