About Bogdan

Bogdan is the Co-founder and Chief Operations Officer of LiftUp, an international IT consulting company that delivers custom-made digital solutions and digital transformation services for companies.

A seasoned international business executive and entrepreneur, he's passionate about technology and its impact on business as well as people. With over 15 years of experience working with Fortune 500 companies and small/mid-size businesses, Bogdan focuses on value creation and bringing clarity across ambiguous contexts.

Mentoring to entrepreneurs and intrapreneurs, Bogdan enjoys helping others with guidance for growing their teams and businesses. He has done that in different business environments, working closely with entrepreneurs in formal and informal contexts.

Bogdan is a member of Park Hills Baptist Church in Austin Texas and actively supports Emanuel University of Oradea, Romania, one of the top Christian evangelical universities in secular Europe.
